

BISHOPS DISAGREE ON QUESTION OF NEGROES

Southern Delegates Want Black Episcopalians to Have Their Own Church and Bishops.

WOULD BE RELIEVED OF BURDEN

Knotty Question is Now Troubling the House of Bishops and Later it Will be Fought Out by Deputies—Bombshell Exploded at Close of Yesterday's Session.

(By Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 7.—Five matters of interest were discussed during the fourth day's session of the general convention of the Episcopal church today. Four of these took place in the house of deputies and one in the house of bishops.

Besides these discussions a matter of special importance was in the air, namely, that the general convention of the church in 1910 would be held in New York City.

Of first importance was the discussion relative to the reduction in the number of representatives from each diocese of the church. At the present time there are 6 dioceses, which send four lay and four clerical delegates, making a total of 488 and to this number must be added about 100 from missionary districts, which brings the total up to 600.

Resolution Defeated.
An earnest effort has been made by the delegates from New York and Massachusetts to reduce this to three clerical and three lay delegates from each diocese in order that the body shall be placed on a better working basis.

New York made an effort to have the deputies appointed according to the number of clergy and laity in the dioceses but this was defeated in the committee. The western dioceses are all opposed to the reduction of representation and after warm speeches were made, the resolution was defeated.

Wants Name Changed.
The second matter of interest occurred when a resolution was made by Dr. Huntington, of New York, to practically change the name of the church to read "American Church."

Mr. Old, of Southern Virginia, led the fight against it, pleading for a delay, which Dr. Huntington granted with the understanding that the matter should be brought up for consideration tomorrow.

The third matter of interest was the passage of a joint resolution which recognized the diocese of Duluth, and the fourth resolution, which practically grants permission to the diocese of Georgia to form a new diocese, which it is said will be called the diocese of Atlanta.

The Negro Question.
In the house of bishops the day was spent for the most part in the discussion of the negro question, which is probably the most important matter which is attracting the attention of this convention. Whether or not negroes are to have their own bishops and practically a separate church, or whether they shall remain a part of the church and under the control of white bishops is the question now consuming the time of the bishops, and which will later be fought out in the house of deputies.

The bishop of dioceses throughout the South are anxious that the negroes shall have their own church and their own bishops, while the northern and western bishops for the most part favor the present plan of white bishops over the negroes.

Negro Opposes Change.
It is said that Bishop Ferguson, of Cape Palmas, the only negro bishop and the only negro delegate attending the convention, is not in favor of a separate church, and negro bishops. It is openly said that the bishops of the South would be glad to be relieved of the burden of the negro in their dioceses, and for this reason they do.

Bishop Montgomery, of London, head of the great English missionary society, spoke before the bishops and the deputies, setting out the work that is to be done by the Pan-Anglican convention and Lambeth conference to be held in London during June and July of next year.

Sunday School Missions.
The matter of Sunday school mission work was discussed by the bishops and a resolution was passed concerning the division of the missionary diocese of Oregon.

The house of bishops voted down a resolution offered permitting the sessions of the house to be open to the public.

At the meeting of the woman's auxiliary, Miss Tomes, president of the New York branch, invited the members to New York in 1910, declaring that the next general convention would be held there.

New York Has Won?
While this statement is somewhat premature, it is said that New York has already won the prize.

On the committee to select a place for the next general convention are the Bishop of New York and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, of New York, both of whom it is known are working earnestly for the city of New York.

Cincinnati is also anxious to secure the next general convention and the Bishop of Southern Ohio is also on the committee of ten who will select the place of meeting.

A Bomb Shell.
The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, the well known author from Ohio, offered a resolution asking that the clergy of the church be allowed to invite ministers of other denominations to take part in the services of the church.

This came in the nature of a bomb shell, but before any discussion followed the resolution was sidetracked by being sent to a committee. The matter promises to be one of the most interesting that will be brought before the convention.

SAILOR USED KNIFE ON PITCHER O'BRIEN

Pair Went Down on Beach to Settle Quarrel of Long Standing—Both Arrested.

Charged with feloniously cutting Thomas O'Brien, the shipbuilder's star pitcher this season, H. A. McGawitz, a sailor of the United States armored cruiser Tennessee, was arrested at Washington yesterday evening by Patrolman Johnson. The tar was locked up at the police station to await a hearing before Justice Brown this morning.

O'Brien was arrested by Patrolman E. P. Moss on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was bailed for his appearance in the police court today.

J. H. Boshier becoming his bondsman. From what the police have been able to learn of the affair, McGawitz and O'Brien have long had a grudge against each other and on meeting yesterday afternoon they went to the river shore near the shipyard to settle the matter in a fistie encounter. During the fray, McGawitz, it is said, drew a knife and cut O'Brien on the left side of the breast, inflicting a small flesh wound.

SHE TOOK HIS WALLET

Admiral Harrington Let Pretty Woman Get Too Close.

WHILE BISHOP WAS SPEAKING

Girl was Young and Good to Look at, and Her Short Stay Cost the Naval Officer Something Over Fifty Dollars.

(Special to The Daily Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 7.—Rear Admiral P. S. Harrington, United States navy, had his pocket picked by a woman at Williamsburg on Saturday during the excitement under the trees incident to the open air address of the Bishop of London, following the presentation of the bible and letters to the old church.

Admiral Harrington was standing almost in the door of the sacred edifice in order to avoid the surging of the crowd.

She was Young and Pretty.
A young and very pretty woman also took refuge in the doorway. She stood very close to the side of the Admiral for several minutes. It was not until after she had made a rather hasty exit into the crowd that the Admiral discovered that his wallet, which had contained something over half a hundred dollars, was missing.

Couldn't Be Located.
The woman could not be located again. Another man is reported to have lost a pocketbook containing a still larger sum in a somewhat similar manner.

BONAPARTE HOLDS THAT LOUISIANA BROKE LAW

State Cannot Pay Passage Money in Order to Bring in Immigrants.

DECIDES AN IMPORTANT QUESTION

Several Other Southern States Are Interested in Matter, as They Have Been Engaged in Soliciting Immigration to Points in Their Borders—Garcia Case Tested.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7.—Attorney General Bonaparte has rendered an opinion in an important case involving the right of a state to solicit immigration from a foreign country. He holds that in the case submitted to him, the state violates the immigration laws in paying the passage money of an immigrant and that in this respect, the state does not differ, in law, from an individual.

The case in point has been pending before the Department of Commerce and Labor since August 5. On that date Geromimo Garcia arrived at New Orleans from Cuba.

Was Denied Admission.
By the special board of inquiry at the former place he was denied admission to the United States. The investigation developed the facts that his passage money had been paid by Rogiland Dyckers, an agent of the Louisiana state board of agriculture and immigration, out of funds regularly appropriated by the state legislature.

He was given assurance that employment as a farm laborer would be secured for him and he promised to return to the state the money advanced to him to pay his passage from Havana to New Orleans. No employer was secured for him, but he was left free to work for whom he pleased.

Louisiana Brought Case.
The case was brought by the state of Louisiana to test the immigration law. Several other Southern states were interested in the matter, because they had been engaged in soliciting immigration to points within their borders. The case was referred to the department of Commerce and Labor, on appeal, and Secretary Strauss submitted the facts to Attorney General Bonaparte for an opinion.

HEBDITCH SWEARS OUT WARRANT FOR CONNELLY

New Development in the "Bottle War"—Justice Brown Hears Cases Today.

There was a new turn of events in the bottle war between J. C. Connelly and J. C. Hebditch yesterday when the latter swore out warrants charging the former with trespass and disorderly conduct. Mr. Connelly was summoned by Sergeant Mitchell to appear in the police court this morning to answer these charges.

Last week Mr. Connelly swore out a warrant against Mr. Hebditch, charging him with larceny and the trial of the case will be heard by Justice Brown in the police court this morning. Both men have a number of witnesses and the cases promise to be quite interesting.

Mr. Hebditch was not in the city when Mr. Connelly swore out the warrant charging him with stealing soda bottles or when the alleged offense was committed. He says that if there were any bottles that did not belong to him in his wagon, it was the result of carelessness on the part of his driver.

ALL BIDS REJECTED.

Steamer Essex Will Be Built Into Freight Carrier Only.
The underwriters, not being satisfied with the bids recently opened for rebuilding the Merchants and Miners Transportation Company's steamer Alleghany, which was burned to the water's edge off Charleston, S. C., several months ago, have decided to reject all estimates for rebuilding the vessel as a passenger steamer, and specifications have been sent out for estimates for remodeling the vessel into a freight steamer only.

The local shipyard was the lowest bidder for rebuilding the vessel as a passenger steamer, offering to do the work for about $135,000. This yard will bid on the work of transforming the Alleghany into a freighter.

WOULD STOP GAMBLING ON COTTON "FUTURES"

Matter of Appealing to Congress and Parliament Considered by International Conference.

MIDDLE MEN TO BE ELIMINATED

Growers Strongly Advised to Handle Their Own Products—Governor Hoke Smith Welcomes Visitors to Georgia—Loss by Transportation Furnishes a Troublesome Problem.

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 7.—With delegates present representing every phase of the cotton industry from the time the product is woven into fabric is sent to markets of the world, and including representatives of many foreign countries, the international conference of cotton spinners and growers met at the state capitol building in this city today for a three days' session.

More than 500 delegates were present, nearly a hundred of these representing the great mills of Germany, Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain and Portugal, with an aggregate wealth in farm lands, cotton crop and mills of nearly four millions of dollars.

During the session questions of the greatest importance to growers and spinners alike will be taken up for discussion and action, and it is hoped that this meeting will result in a better understanding between the men who produce cotton and those who weave the staple into fabric, thereby preventing great losses to spinners by reason of poor methods of handling and shipping the raw product.

A lively fight for regulation of prohibition of speculative dealing in cotton was also indicated before the committee on buying and selling, when Congressman Heflitz, of Alabama, introduced a resolution asking the conference to memorialize Congress and the British Parliament to stop speculation in cotton except that actually owned. But the fact that an investigation following a similar resolution had resulted in a refusal by the British law-making body to disturb existing conditions was brought out, and a favorable report by the subcommittee to which the matter was finally referred will undoubtedly be accompanied by a vigorous minority report against any such action.

Do Away With Middle Man.
Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, in his address of welcome to the delegates, caused much applause by advocating the ginning, compressing and baling of the cotton on the plantation and abolishing the manipulation of the middleman, and undoubtedly this feature of the cotton industry will receive much attention.

The morning session was taken up largely with addresses of welcome and responses and the appointment of committees. In his opening address Mr. Macoll outlined the objects of the conference and made suggestions for the elimination of differences between grower and spinner, and methods of increasing the value of the product of the grower. He said that the planter, if he wants to sell direct to the spinner, must in some way do the work of the middleman and have the same financial responsibility.

Mr. Macoll requested earnest consideration of the question of trading in futures and speculation resulting therefrom.

A Word From England.
C. W. Meara, president of the English masters cotton spinners federation and vice president of the International conference, spoke briefly, saying: "The American cotton crop plays such an important part in the supply of the world's needs that operations which affect it, practically affect more or less, the entire cotton crop of the world, and when consideration is given to the colossal dimensions of the world's cotton crop and to the fact that the raising or reducing the annual average price by illegitimate speculation by even one cent a pound represents $30,000,000, it must be obvious that it is time some determined effort was made to rid the industry of this serious and unnecessary burden."

Officers Relected.
All officers of the conference were reelected.

This afternoon was devoted to committee meetings in all of which lively discussions were heard.

Loss in Transportation.
Chairman Mullister stated that the loss in transportation from improper compressing and baling is estimated at over twenty million dollars annually on the cotton used by European spinners.

At tomorrow morning's session of the conference reports of committees will be heard.

POLICE FIRE UPON BELLIGERENT NEGROES

Trouble Between Blacks and Sailors Follows Saturday Night Murder.

(By the Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 7.—More trouble between the sailors at the St. Helena training station and negroes, growing out of the murder of Navy Baker Thomas Hastings by an unknown negro Saturday night, occurred last night, in which a negro named Albert Johnson was badly beaten. He claimed to have been struck on the head with a board and several cuts and bruises were inflicted.

Shortly after this affair, trouble started again near the St. Helena gate, when fifteen negroes attacked two sailors who were entering the station. The negroes were fired on and dispersed by the police, one of whom had a narrow escape from being injured by bricks and other missiles which were thrown at the sailors.

No arrests have been made in this instance. After the murder of Hastings Saturday night the sailors organized a search for the assassin, and carried a rope with them. Norfolk police claim to know the identity of the negro and his arrest is expected.

WILMINGTON BOX SHOOK FACTORY IS DESTROYED

Damage Amounts to $100,000, With Only One Fourth Covered by Insurance.

(By Associated Press.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 7.—The plan of the Hannah Box Shook Company in this city, largely owned by Henry C. Riley, of Philadelphia, and Walter and Thomas Hannah, of this city, was destroyed by fire today, entailing a loss variously estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000, upon which there was only $25,000 insurance.

Seven small dwelling houses adjoining the plant were also burned. While responding to an alarm on account of the fire, a hose reel wagon company of the local department swerved on a down hill run and two horses were so badly injured by a sharp contact with a telegraph pole that one was killed and the other will die.

The wagon was wrecked, and Foreman Canady, and one of four men on the vehicle were badly injured.

OPENING OF STATE FAIR

Small Attendance, Good Track and No Records.

EXHIBITS ABOVE THE AVERAGE

Poor Crowd Was Anticipated Because Everything is in an Unfinished Condition—Favorites Win All Three Races.

(Special to The Daily Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 7.—The opening day of the State fair races showed a good track, small attendance and no records. The horses were in fine fettle and in each of the three races the favorite won with the bookies bright and smiling. Lady May had everything her own way in the first race, and the same may be said of Sallie C. In the second, while Finch was forced to show her heels to Miss Peeler in the third.

There were only three races run. The exhibits at the fair are above the average. Many thoroughbred horses and cattle are on exhibition; the shows are also good. The poorest of attendance was anticipated on the account of this being the opening with everything in an unfinished condition.

Football Club.
The High School boys have organized a strong football eleven for the coming season. Mr. John H. Bowen was chosen the manager and coach and Mr. Raymond Bittingham will captain the eleven.

BLACK HUNDRED RANSACKS SHOPS

Volley of Revolver Shots Fired Into Cemetery in Midst of Funeral Services—Cossacks Only Laugh at Rapidity With Which Rioters Escape—Trouble Diminishing.

(By the Associated Press.)
ODESSA, Oct. 7.—The unionists of Odessa continued today their attack and outrages upon Jews. They began by surrounding the Hebrew cemetery where a funeral services was going on.

First they stoned, and then they fired a volley of revolver shots at the mourning Jews, many of whom were wounded. The Jews fled in panic.

Officer Kills One Rioter.
Later in the day members of the Black Hundred divided themselves into small groups ransacking several Jewish shops and mercilessly beating the proprietors. A police sergeant, who attempted to intervene, was brutally attacked, whereupon he drew his revolver and killed one of his assailants.

Cossacks Only Laughed.
There were fewer police than usual on the streets today. After usual Jew beating, detachments of cossacks arrived on scene, but instead of pursuing the Black Hundred they laughed at the rapidity with which they made their escape.

Up to the present time Governor General Novitsky has made no attempt to stop the outrages, but nevertheless they are diminishing gradually.
